In order to assist in this, the following mandate will help to ensure that all of the titleholder obligations are met. Over my year I will:

- Require to attend the 2019 Pride event, to be held at the Joel Stone Heritage Park and other event following the Pageant organized by the Pageant titleholder in each division. - Make at least three (3) community appearances in support of various Gananoque LGBTTQ2+ organizations.
- Attend Operations Committee meetings when requested.
- The winner (s) of the previous year will be expected to perform at the following years' pageant for the passing of the title and crown.

In addition to the above-mentioned benchmarks, I agree to hold the title of Ms. /Mr. /Mx. 1000 Islands Pride, Inc. organization, and all partners in the highest esteem. While representing the title, 1000 Islands Pride, Inc. Pageant titleholders must agree to the following while representing their title:

- Titleholders may reign for up to two consecutive years and must wait until someone else has held the title for a full year to be eligible to enter again.

In the event that the Titleholder is unable to complete their reign or in the event of a breach in the contract, the titleholder shall forfeit all their prizes, crown and sash immediately.

The First Alternate for each category shall be available, for the first 3 months of the newly appointed Titleholder reign, to take over should the winner be unable to fulfill their duties. The First Alternate will only be able to refuse the title after the 3 month period has passed.
